Continuing the Sale of Lace Curtains.

The success of this Lace Curtain Sale has been phenomenal—the greatest in the store's history. Naturally, if one buys from the makers a great deal on the cost can be saved-by buying in large: quantities a great deal more. Not only has this been taken into consideration for this year's sale, but manufacturers in every instance have sold us goods at lowest possible figures. We, to make this sale our greatest, placed but very scant profit in our turn, and this is what we lay our success to. The assortments of styles, designs, textures and qualities reach almost endless proportions, and compared to the goods themselves, the prices are really sensational. Remember this
